Here Is Your Workout

Perform each stretch three times, gently easing into the stretch. Slowly go as far as you can without causing discomfort or pain.

Be careful not to go beyond your limit and avoid bouncing up and down or jerky movements.

Hold each stretch for up to 10 seconds. Be sure to breathe normally, do not hold your breath.

Stretch contains five stretching sessions designed to target all areas of the body.

There are three bodyweight sessions that contain stretches for all the major muscle groups in the body that do not require any equipment and can be performed anytime or anywhere.

There are also two Swiss Ball sessions that contain stretches also for all the major muscle groups using a Swiss ball.

Equipment: Bodyweight,

Calves Stretch

- Stand upright, bracing yourself against a wall or solid support with your back leg straight and your front leg slightly bent at the knee.

1 - Keeping your back foot flat on the floor, lean your weight forward and push into your back heel.

- Perform on one side, then switch to the other side. Alternate sides with each rep.
